SOME BIG FISH AND BIGGER STORIES ARE HOOKED

Glendale Anglers Have Varied Luck at Season's Opening; Some Are Still Out

The fickle fish has lured a larger part of the population from Glendale, it would seem from a check made at stores and offices this morning.

Already some of the anglers are home with "the limit" while others are home with only a tale to tell. However, the streams seem to be well stocked and later reports are expected to indicate just where the big catches are to be made.

The Glendale Chamber of Commerce board of directors' meeting was postponed at 10 o'clock this morning by Secretary James M. Rhoades, who learned that a quorum of its members would be in the middle of some mountain lake or rivulet.

Rene Olin and party, including C. H. Kirkman and "Bob" Ford, were the first to arrive home this morning, pulling in at 4:30 a. m. from Big Bear Lake, where they pulled out the last one at 7:30 o'clock last night.

Both Limit and Sumburn
All got the limit and all got sunburned, although the snow is on the mountains and the water icy cold. All agree that the trout were never biting better. They put up at Stillwell's camp for the day.

George Bentley, Roger Bentley, John Bentley, Arnold Maxwell and Perry E. Maxwell of the Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber company, reported a few hours later with Roger claiming to have caught the limit at Big Bear. Perry and George didn't fare so well.

Among the many others who are out are the following:
Mr. and Mrs. Harry MacBain and party who went ninety miles above Santa Paula, where the minnies are reported deaf, dumb and blind.

Arthur Wadelich and party are at Big Bear.
Roberts & Echols went to the Big Tajunga yesterday and caught equally as many pictures as fish, or maybe more of the former.

What Might Happen If Parking Law Is Put In Effect Here

Unless repealed, the ordinance regulating parking in the business section of the city will go into effect the last of this month. The section of the ordinance relating to parking is as follows:

"That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to park any vehicle, or cause any vehicle to be parked on either side of Brand boulevard from the north line of Colorado street to the south line of California street, on either side of Broadway from the west line of Jackson street to the east line of Central avenue, between the hours of 9 o'clock a. m. and 5 o'clock p. m., on any day except Sunday or legal holidays, for a longer period of time than two hours."

As a result, if you wish to attend the matinee and park on a business street, you will be forced to appear in the police court or else get up in the middle of the show and hurry your car to a side street.

Or, if you drive to the business section to do some shopping, become interested in the bargains and forget about the parking law, you will be forced to say: "Good morning, Judge," and hear the judge say: "It will cost you $15."

And if you are in business and have your car parked in front of the place of business, you must be careful to tie it away every two hours or you will lose a day's profits.

Also, if a customer's car is parked in front of your store, don't forget to interrupt the sale to remind him—or her—to get the car away or a cop will tag you. Of course the customer will return to complete the sale!

When people from outside come here to investigate realty bargains they will park in the business section, go out in the realty man's auto to look at bargains—and return to find the trip has cost them $15—more or less—and they will be happy to locate in Glendale.

Incidentally, the news spread by the Chamber of Commerce through-out the valley that "Glendale has no parking law; come here and trade," will have to be denied with: "Glendale HAS a parking law; come here at your peril."

On the other hand—
The parking law will keep lots of automobiles off the business streets; there will be plenty of room for those who wish to park for less than two hours.

The ordinance has great possibilities—that's admitted.

Meanwhile, two councilmen have already tried to get the law repealed; a third councilman says he will vote with them for its repeal provided representatives of the business interests sign a petition to that effect or personally appear before the council. And it takes three voters to prevent the ordinance going into effect the last of this month.

Majority of Council Insists That Petition Be Filed or Delegation Be Present

Repeal of ordinance 561, a measure amending ordinance 315 so as to add a new section prescribing parking rules in the business section of the city, was attempted at the meeting of the city council last night by Councilmen C. E. Kimlin and S. A. Davis, but they were blocked by the votes of Mayor Spencer Robinson and Councilmen A. H. Lapham and Dwight W. Stephenson.

However, Councilman Stephenson announced that he would be perfectly willing to vote for the repeal of the parking law, provided a petition asking for it is presented by the business interests next Thursday night, or he will vote for repeal, he said, if a delegation representing the business interests appear before the council.

Councilman Kimlin, who introduced the ordinance, declared that he was in favor of its repeal "in order that I may be placed in the position before the people of this city as having had no part in any alleged attempt to slip anything over."

It has been said that the ordinance was passed last Thursday night without persons in the audience having heard the title read or, in fact, of having realized the council was taking action on a parking law.

Action Taken at Request
Councilman Davis last night declared he was against the law at the start, was against it now and only voted for it because, as he thought, the Chamber of Commerce wanted it passed.

"I now find that the Chamber of Commerce directors did not sound out the business interests of the city relative to the ordinance," said Councilman Davis. "Never again will I vote for something that my judgment tells me is not right. By the way, who started this parking law, anyway? I can't learn. It's a mystery."

Councilman Stephenson declared he was perfectly willing to vote for repeal of the law provided representatives of those most affected would (Continued on Page 2)

The affair, which was given in the nature of a celebration in honor of Mrs. Fuelscher's birthday, it was also given for the purpose of celebrating, with Mrs. Fuelscher, the fact that she was able to be out after suffering from a broken ankle which she sustained early in January. Rex, Nice Doggie, Is Interviewed and Declares He Is Opposed to Muzzling

Editor The Glendale Evening News: There has been so much talk about muzzling the dog—man, woman and child's best friend and pal. Why not put it up to the dog? Seems to me he would say something like this:

Did you ever try wearing a muzzle, folks?
Well, now, just stop and think
How you would feel on a dusty day
If you couldn't take a drink;
If you couldn't even breathe with ease,
And almost seemed to choke—
If you couldn't lick your master's hand.
Would seem much better to croak.
It would make you feel humiliated,
Like folks think you might bite,
And, I bet, before the day was through,
You'd be mad enough to fight,
We worship at our master's feet,
His faults we never find;
We follow him, ay, to the death,
Be he mean or kind.
So, folks, apply the golden rule,
Try keeping us close to home;
Treat us kindly, give us love,
And we'll never care to roam.
—Elsie Louise Tice, 1065 Justin Ave., Glendale.

JOSEPH N. OLMSTED, 86, TELLS ABOUT PIONEER LIFE

Joseph N. Olmsted of 64 West California street, who very quietly and happily observed his eighty-sixth birthday yesterday, tells many interesting incidents of his pioneer life in the east and middle west. Born at Windsor, Conn., in 1836, where he spent his early boyhood years, he started out to be independent at the early age of 15, as a clerk in a drygoods store in Hartford.

When a lad of only 19, he arrived in Chicago, in 1855, and was still a drygoods clerk for Downs, a pioneer firm. Among his associates, most of whom were clerks, were Marshall Field, "Long" John Wentworth, Farwell and many others whose names are equally well known. He cast almost his first vote with the new Republican party, and still remembers with what a feeling of pride he marched with 10,000 men down the streets in the first torchlight procession ever held in Chicago, during the famous Fremont campaign.

He established his own drygoods business in a suburb of Chicago, now called Arlington Heights, and became a very prosperous merchant.

Appointed Postmaster
During Lincoln's first administration, Mr. Olmsted was appointed by the president as postmaster of Arlington Heights and held that position for 22 consecutive years. He met Lincoln and Douglas several times, but did not hear the famous debates, although he did hear addressed by both men.

Retiring from business in 1892, he returned to Hartford, where he remained until the death of his wife in 1905. He then came west to Colorado Springs.

Of their six children only two are living, Dr. G. K. Olmsted of Colorado Springs and H. J. Olmsted of Glendale, with whom he makes his home.

For the past eight years he has spent his winters in Glendale, where he has purchased a home and expects to make this his abiding place for the remainder of his life.

At that time reports were made of the work which had been done during the past month and plans for the coming month were discussed, the principal feature being the camp reunion and closing rally for grammar school boys, to be held Friday evening, May 26, in the Baptist church. A program of unusual interest is being arranged for that night. Josiah Poeton of Claremont will be the main attraction.

Mr. Poeton has had a wide experience working with young people and is known chiefly for his work for the French government immediately after the close of the war, when he directed the reconstruction for the thousands of children taken from the devastated areas and kept for periods of six weeks in the government camps. The largest of these was the one established in an English base hospital in southern France for 12,000 children. Mr. Poeton has a great many interesting experiences to tell about in connection with his teaching these children how to play.

Seventh-day Adventist church. Stipulations have been made in recent deals for the construction of two six-story buildings while scores of homes are completed every week. Light and water meter installations reveal the city is increasing by more than 1,000 a month. Some speed!"

And for those who care for figures—building figures—the following are submitted from the records at the city hall:

Board of Directors Of Y. M. C. A. Meets

A meeting of the members of the board of directors of the Glendale district Y. M. C. A. was held last night at the district office, 102-A East Broadway with Dwid Black, C. W. Ingelude, H. L. Finlay, J. S. Thompson and W. F. Tower present. At that time reports were made of the work which had been done during the past month and plans for the coming month were discussed, the principal feature being the camp reunion and closing rally for grammar school boys, to be held Friday evening, May 26, in the Baptist church. A program of unusual interest is being arranged for that night. Josiah Poeton of Claremont will be the main attraction.

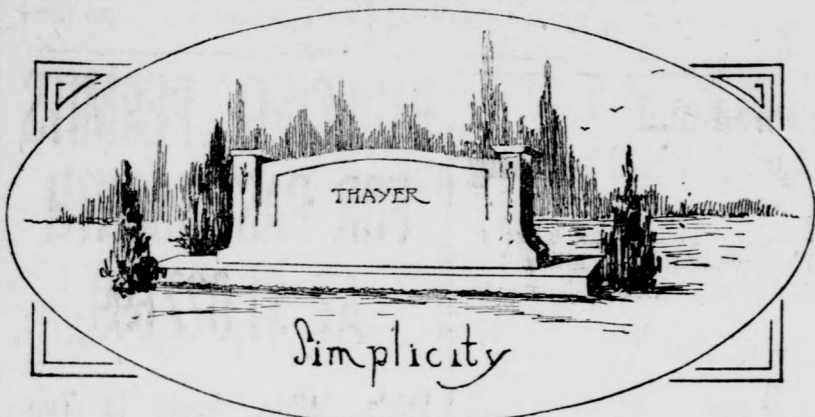

Mr. Poeton has had a wide experience working with young people and is known chiefly for his work for the French government immediately after the close of the war, when he directed the reconstruction for the thousands of children taken from the devastated areas and kept for periods of six weeks in the government camps. The largest of these was the one established in an English base hospital in southern France for 12,000 children. Mr. Poeton has a great many interesting experiences to tell about in connection with his teaching these children how to play.

Representatives of the Hi-Y will go to Highland Park tomorrow night to assist in establishing a club at Franklin high school. Next Sunday night the Hi-Y under the direction of Carl Seltzer will go to Roscoe to speak in a church there, and the following Monday the Long Beach Hi-Y will be the guests of the local club here at a beefsteak bake.

STUDENTS ATTEND PLAY

The Mission Play at San Gabriel will be attended tomorrow afternoon by about 125 students from Glendale Union High school. They will leave Glendale at 12:45 in a special train over the Pacific Electric. Arrangements have been made by Miss Isabel Stevens, head of the language department.

The sickening thud you heard last night was the arrival of the Yankees in second place behind the St. Louis Browns. Alex Ferguson, still another of the ever-increasing list of New York outcasts, held the Yanks to four hits, and the Red Sox won their third straight.

Young Rohrer, pinch hitter for Adams, obliged with a trip in the eighth inning, allowing the Pirates to come from the rear and beat the Reds.

The inspired White Sox made it four out of four from the Tigers with Cobb playing center field. Five-thumbed work by the Detroit defense became a contributing factor.

Likewise did the Browns make a clean-up of their series with the Indians, manhandling three Indian pitchers, Uhle, Lindsay and Potts, for sixteen hits.

Hank Shriver, up from the Saginaw club, held the Phillies to three hits and the Detroit won their second straight shutout of the series.

PIPAL'S RELAY TEAM WINS TWO FIRST AT DRAKE MEET

Eagle Rock Athletes Make Big Showing; New Record in Relay at Pennsylvania

By HOWARD M'GILLIS
Coach "Timber Wolf" Pipal's fondest hopes were realized Saturday at the annual Drake relays at Des Moines, Iowa, when his five-man team of Occidental college cinder path athletes took first place in both the mile and the half-mile relays, in addition to fourth place in the high jump. The latter place was taken by Cliff Argue, Oxy's sophomore "iron man."

The spectacular showing made by the Eagle Rock athletes was even more brilliant due to the fact that the victories were taken from an exceptionally large and strong team because they had traveled farther than any of their rivals to take part in the event.

In addition to these facts it might be stated that every event of the day was performed in time that was far above the average, with the result that six records were broken during the afternoon.

Occidental's quartet of championship runners in the two four-man college relay events were Spangler, Ellsworth, Martin and Powers. The average time made by each of the Black and Orange entrants in the mile race was 51 2-5 seconds, or a total of 3:25 3-5 for the entire race. The time made by Pipal's men in the half-mile event, however, was more of a feat. This distance was negotiated in 1:30 3-5. The Drake record for this event is 1:30 1-5.

Johnny Powers, sprinter de luxe and anchor man of the squad, made better time than any of his teammates, breasting the tape in 50 1-5 seconds after he had grasped the precious stick from the hands of Martin. Spangler came in for second honors with a mark just two-fifths of a second under that made by Powers. Martin covered the distance in 51 1-5 seconds, while Ellsworth's time was 52 seconds flat.

Pennsylvania Carnival

While the Drake event was attracting the attention of western track and field followers last Saturday the eyes of the eastern sporting world were fixed on Franklin Field, Philadelphia, where the annual Pennsylvania relay carnival, which is the biggest and most important event of its kind staged each season, took place. The 1922 affair was easily the banner one in the history of the carnival, in attendance as well as from an entry list standpoint. A crowd of approximately 21,000 fans turned out to witness the various performances.

The big thrill of the day was furnished in the open four-man two-mile relay race, in which the quartet representing the University of Pennsylvania established a world's record for the event in the remarkable time of 7 minutes 49 2-5 seconds. Penn State and Georgetown finished behind the leaders in the order named, both of the squad members winning practically throughout the entire distance.

Made on Same Track

The former world's record in the grilling two-mile event was established by the Achilles Club of England in 1920, when they negotiated the distance on the same track in 7 minutes 50 2-5 seconds. The quartet was composed of a combination of the Oxford and Cambridge university squads, including the following stars: H. B. Stallard, E. G. Rudd, W. Tatham and R. E. Milligan.

The new championship team consists of George Meredith, John Helden, J. Hanlon and E. McMullen. Other squads winning first places in relay events were Syracuse, Cornell and Georgetown.

Individual stars who captured places in the big events of the day were Leroy Brown of Dartmouth, George Meredith of Pennsylvania, Ralph Hills of Princeton, Earl Thomson of Dartmouth, Alfred Lacey of Lafayette and "Mighty" Murphy of Notre Dame.

Parking Ordinance Not Yet Repealed

come before the council or petition for such action.

"There are none here tonight to ask for it," said Councilman Stephenson. "The open council chamber is the place to transact city business. If they want it repealed, let them come here."

Approved by C. of C.

Councilman Lapham said the Chamber of Commerce directors had approved the ordinance, and he believed in letting it stay on the records until a formal request was made for its repeal.

Mayor Robinson admitted he did not know the parking law was passed last Thursday night until later. He said the action was taken with the approval of the Chamber of Commerce and he believed a formal request or petition should be made for its repeal.

Councilman Kimlin declared that considerable protest had followed the passage of the law and he urged that it be repealed, especially in view of the fact that persons present last Thursday night to protest its passage failed to hear it come before the council for action.

"I certainly do not want to be in the position which has resulted from our action of last Thursday night," said Councilman Kimlin, "and I urge we repeal the ordinance."
But the vote showed three to one in favor of leaving the law on the records. The ordinance, unless repealed, goes into effect the last of this month.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Something to Shoot At! Advertise, That's Answer Agitated Air; What of It? How Long Will Ice Last?

By Gil A. Cowan

Now that a new record has been set in Glendale building in the past month, there is every inducement for topping the million-dollar mark again.

It is probable that the figure cannot be accomplished in the month of May, but it is going to be a mighty representative showing.

Like the snowball rolling down hill, the building activity here has just begun to gather the speed that will carry it beyond the realm of dreams in the following four years of prosperity—or more.

It is nice to know that the United States has entered on an era of extended prosperity, for it is reflected here as no place else. Glendale is the brightest spot of the bright spot and then some.

Why, whoever heard of a city of 30,000, but, instead of building a million dollars' worth of building in twenty-eight working days? That is, of course, with only one permit for more than $100,000, and that only $150,000.

Most of the building in Glendale is confined to homes and more homes. A city of homes—that's what it is—and people are paying a premium to live here because it is such.

Let's keep going.

Burbank is faced with a dire danger, according to the current issue of The Review. The Chamber of Commerce is contemplating the inroads of Los Angeles and Glendale merchants.

Well, Glendale has the same difficulty, but, instead of building a wall around itself—which will not stand—Glendale is making the most of it and slowly, yes, very slowly, educating its residents to trade at home, to patronize home industry, etc.

Many people do not know what "Buy at Home" means, but, if the merchants would stop and think a minute, they would realize that their "home town" paper affords them the opportunity of letting the people know.

Really, it is pitiful to see advertising appropriations wasted in the gutter when a paid-in-advance, independent, Glendale-owned, daily newspaper gives entree to the homes of those people who should be reached.

However, a permanent business is not built with sympathy, and The Glendale Evening News' only platform can be summarized in one word, "RESULTS."

So, our advice to the merchants of Burbank is, ADVERTISE IN THE HOME TOWN PAPER.

From Osceola, Mo., comes the most remarkable dispatch.

"Agitated air is the cause of the floods reported from many sections of the country," says Delbert Neal, who directed an appeal to the broadcasting stations to "cut out tickling the air."

There's food for serious thought. While it is highly improbable that radio has anything to do with the weather, it is not beyond belief that the surcharge of miscellaneous information and music will have some effect on things.

At first the radium rays were believed curative until many died from burns. Now, what effect will radio waves have on humanity?

Here's hoping that none will be noticed.

Here's something for the ice men to try:

How long will a cake of ice last in the sun?
At Wooster, Ohio, a 300-pound block was placed in a display window and guesses were made as to its durability. It held its place in the sun for 56 hours and 50 minutes.

Many a housewife here would like to see that average in her refrigerator this summer.

CLUB TO ENTERTAIN HERE

The Choral Society and Boosters' Club of the Los Angeles council, Knights of Columbus, will entertain the Glendale council and their friends on Wednesday night, May 3, at the new Odd Fellows' hall, Orange and Broadway, after 9 o'clock, it is announced. All men of the local Catholic parish are cordially invited to attend.

That Morning Lameness

If you are lame every morning, and suffer urinary ills, there must be a cause. Often it's weak kidneys. To strengthen the weakened kidneys and avert more serious troubles, use Doan's Kidney Pills. You can rely on this woman's testimony.

Mrs. J. M. Derr, 757 Earlsam street, Pasadena, Calif., says: "The first symptoms of kidney complaint in my case was backache. When I first got up in the morning, there was a lameness and soreness through my kidneys and across my loins, but after I had been on my feet awhile about the house, the pain eased up a bit. I was extremely nervous and became easily excited. I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and one box cured the backache and the nervousness left me."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Derr had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advertisement.

CHICAGO, May 2.—Workmen digging in the street on the west side here, unearthed two buried and mouldering skulls. SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR UP UGLY, BROKEN OUT SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Mentho-Sulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Mentho-Sulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.—Advertisement

FIELD MEETING OF DAIRYMEN TO BE HELD ON MAY 8

Farm Bureau Department to Have Session at Adohr Ranch Near Van Nuys

The Dairymen's department of the Los Angeles County Farm Bureau is planning its regular spring quarterly field meeting for Monday, May 8.

This meeting will be held at the Adohr Stock Farms on the Ventura boulevard, above Van Nuys. One of the big features of the day will be the big barbecue to be served at noon. A program of very great interest to dairymen is being arranged and an opportunity will be given dairymen to see some of the very splendid Guernseys on this farm and an opportunity to exercise their ability at judging livestock as well. The cups which will be given as prizes in the Los Angeles County Farm Bureau dairy cow competition which will end June 30th will be on exhibition.

Masonic Lodge for Lankershim
Lankershim is to have a Masonic lodge. It has really been started and it is on its way. Some eighty Masons gathered last week at the Wedding-ton auditorium for the purpose of organization. It was a most enthusiastic meeting for a home lodge at Lankershim. Membership cards were passed and sixty-five signified their intention of becoming members. J. H. Fritz, 324 degree Mason, was duly elected the first Master of the lodge.

Strawberry Season Starts
The strawberry season has opened in Van Nuys vicinity and the growers have begun to market the choice quality of berries for which Van Nuys is noted. The berry industry this season has made wonderful strides and the quantity of the product will exceed all past records. The industry is almost exclusively carried on by white growers and there are few orientals. A preserving plant will be established as soon as the supply outgrows the domestic demand.

Orchards at Owensmouth
That there are 6,682 acres set to walnuts, citrus and deciduous fruit trees in the Owensmouth water district is shown by the preliminary survey made by the water office during the past few weeks.

U. S. WILL AID ENGLAND

BERLIN, May 2.—If France goes through with her threat to occupy the Ruhr basin after May 31, a breach with Great Britain will take place and the United States will hesitatingly give her diplomatic support to England, according to an interview with Congressman Fred A. Britten of Illinois, printed in the Berlin press.

"The nations of the world," Representative Britten is quoted as saying, "will not all help France to paralyze Germany industrially under the pretense of enforcing reparations payments."

Offer Complete Stocks at Gateway Market

Have you been at the Gateway Market recently? If not, be sure and go there tomorrow and see how complete the stocks are, how well the market, groceries and bakers are serving the large number of patrons in their vicinity.

Franklin & Spafard have built an enviable business in the staple and fancy grocery, delicatessen and poultry supply business.

C. Caswell offers some mighty attractive bargains on Saturdays for the Sunday dinners while every week the prices on fresh and smoked meat and fish are "right."

You will always find some special delicacy for the hurried dinner at Lee & Nuhn's bakery which is a model of cleanliness and efficiency. You will appreciate their service.

And around the corner is Tompkins' drug store and the Wilson-Bell Hardware store, which will supply the rest of your needs in the way of merchandise.

Why Repair Cars If Fish Are Biting, Eh?

The Triangle garage, 1526 South San Fernando Road, was closed yesterday.

There was a reason.

The reason was the opening of the fishing season.

In order to get to Sesepe lake before all the trout should have accepted dinner invitations elsewhere, Mr. and Mrs. George H. McLean and Mr. and Mrs. John Kokal, all of 1521 South Central avenue, departed at 2 o'clock Monday morning by motor.

Upon their return, they reported a delightful time and immediately settled the anxiety on the part of their neighbors as to whether the fish were to be divided among their friends.

Seek More Lights on San Fernando Road

A petition requesting the installation of ornamental street lights between Brand boulevard and Los Feliz Road probably will be presented to the city council Thursday night by T. B. Reavis of 1539 South San Fernando Road.

Already, twenty local property owners have signed and Mr. Reavis hopes to be able to reach some of the out-of-town taxpayers.

The type of light desired is the same as that specified recently by the San Fernando Road Improvement association.

Reports on Proposed Street Lights Tonight

Reports in regard to the proposed system of street lighting for San Fernando road will be made at the meeting tonight of the San Fernando Boulevard Improvement Association in the office of the W. Griffin Plumbing shop at 806 South San Fernando road.

ANNEX NEAR COMPLETION

The annex to the Gateway Lunch room should be ready for patrons by the middle of this week, according to Walter Buttery, proprietor of the establishment. This consists of four lunch booths, each accommodating four people. The interior finish is light tan.

H. G. ROSS TELLS OF REASONS FOR GLASSES

"Blindness in America has decreased about 20 per cent since the advent of glasses," remarked H. G. Ross, optometrist at 1522 South San Fernando Road, recently.

"Five Americans wear glasses to one of any other nationality."

"All knowledge is acquired through our senses. Through our eyes 85 per cent of our knowledge is acquired."

"Sixty-two per cent of all children between five and sixteen years of age have defective vision. Of this number 15 per cent are nearsighted and 85 per cent farsighted. Most of all of the nearsighted and a few of the farsighted children are easily detected, but about 90 per cent of the farsighted children suffer from latent errors of refraction. Their vision is normal, but normal vision does not always indicate a normal eye."

Parents should look for these symptoms in their children: head-aches, squinting, red, inflamed eyes, eyes sensitive to light, tilting the head, holding book too close to the eyes, lack of concentration, poor report cards, and nervousness. The only way to detect latent defects of vision is to have an examination made by a properly qualified person.

Quick Service Given at Dry Goods Store

Quality, price and service are the three words emphasizing the standard on which the South Glendale Dry Goods store is built by G. W. and F. B. Cox at 1510 South San Fernando Road in the southern section of the city.

At this store you will find a business unique in that it is right-up-to-the-minute establishment where you can get what you want or it will be obtained for you on a day's notice. That alone is worth something to the shopper who needs the personal service of an experienced shopper who is satisfied with a small profit.

Men's and boys' furnishings provide quite a complete line while lots of work clothes are sold by this store. Mr. Cox is pleased to get acquainted with the people of the vicinity and learn what their needs are in the way of dry goods and notions.

P. PELLIGRINI BUILDS LARGE GARAGE PROPERTY

P. Pelligrini of 3032 Carmel street is watching with interest the construction of his new garage building at 1321 South San Fernando Road. As the brick walls have arisen under the direction of Contractor Elmer Elliott there has been much speculation in regard to the structure by residents of southern Glendale.

The garage has a frontage of 59 feet on San Fernando Road and 97 feet on Fernando Court. It will have entrances on both these streets. The corner probably will be occupied by an automobile sales agency.

Mr. Pelligrini recently arrived in Glendale from Kingman, Ariz., where he operated a garage. He was there four or five years. Previously, he resided in Los Angeles.

TIME FOR REFRIGERATORS

Glaciers in Southern Glendale! However, J. M. Wilson, manager of the Wilson & Bell Hardware store at 1738 South San Fernando Road, does not believe they will affect the climate. He has announced that the establishment has a line of "Glacier" refrigerators ranging in ice capacity from twenty to 125 pounds. These are both top and front "icers" and have the hearty approval of John McKnight, who is taking pleasure in showing them to interested housewives.

STONECUTTERS IN DEMAND

The difficulty of securing an expert stonecutter to assist him was commented upon yesterday afternoon by C. H. Ambrosch, proprietor of the Glendale Monument Works at 1727 South Brand boulevard. He remarked that Los Angeles firms were obliged to send to Chicago and sometimes all the way to Vermont to secure competent workmen. Mr. Ambrosch is well satisfied with the amount of work which is coming to him.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Now is the time to eat vegetables and no better place in Glendale for a fresh variety of home-grown products can be found than the line handled by Roy Johnston at 1133 South San Fernando Road. He has handled fruits and vegetables in this vicinity, both retail and wholesale, for so many years that the name of Johnston is well placed in the minds of the older residents. They know where to go to get the best and freshest.

WIDOW WINS $25,000 SUIT

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The Supreme Court of the United States has refused a rehearing to C. E. Schaff, receiver of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway company of Texas, in a damage suit case won by Mrs. Sarah Morris, widow of an employee of the railroad.

The railroad had been held liable for $25,000 damages for causing the death of Guy H. Morris, a brakeman, under the federal employers' liability act in Texas courts.

Famous Barytone Gives Concert Over Radio

From Alaska to Guatemala and from the Hawaiian Islands to the State of Ohio, radio fans, numbering 100,000 or more, heard Joseph Schwartz, the famous Russian barytone with the Chicago Opera Company, sing the prologue from "Il Pagliacci" at a special radio concert, staged in San Francisco. The singer was accompanied by Mrs. Elsie Cook Hughes and S. A. Sollie. The radio carried the song for fully 2000 miles.

Radio Rex Answers When Anyone Calls

By GEORGE VAN SANDS. Radio Editor The Evening News. Today's entry for the prize radio story contest gives an account of an amusing and interesting radio dog and is contributed by the Brinkman Electric, of 1524 San Fernando Road. The story follows: "A novelty, the first of its kind to be shown in Glendale, is known as 'Radio Rex.' This consists of a dog kennel with a door or opening for Rex, the dog, to jump out when anyone calls 'Radio Rex.' Rex himself is a small collie dog of very savage face, and when placed in the kennel he is retained in a sort of a trap controlled by a spring which will release the trap and cause Rex to jump out of the kennel when the magic words 'Radio Rex' are spoken. This toy, in addition to being amusing, demonstrates in a way one of the principles of radio, as it is the vibrations of the certain sound waves produced by the human voice in saying 'Radio Rex' that cause the necessary vibrations on the spring to release Rex and cause him to jump about a foot out of his kennel." The radio editor took a look at "Radio Rex" and without doubt it is one of the most interesting little toys on the market. I am informed that this toy is being sold by the thousands in the east. The representative of the company manufacturing them has just reached the coast and this sample he left with the Brinkman Electric was the last one he had. Almost everyone who sees this toy believes that the operator or person showing "Radio Rex" releases a hidden spring when the dog is called, but a little investigation reveals that such is not the case, as it is the vibrations of the voice alone that does the trick. The next story in the prize contest will appear tomorrow.

Questions on Radio and Their Answers

Question: Will you kindly inform me through your column if it is necessary for a person contemplating the purchase of a wireless telephone receiver to have the ability to understand the wireless telegraph code to enjoy the full benefits of it, and if so, is it difficult to learn the code, and wherein does it differ from the regular Morse telegraph code? J. H. H. Glendale. Answer: It is absolutely unnecessary that you know the wireless telegraph code to enjoy the speeches, music, concerts, etc., being sent through the air by the broadcasting station. Of course it would be of additional benefit to you to know the wireless telegraph code if you wanted to know what was being sent through the air by wireless telegraph, but speaking as a whole, the wireless telegraph messages that are coming at all times through the air contain nothing much of interest to the average person, and unless you intended going in for the wireless telegraph end of radio there is no occasion for you to spend the time necessary to master the code. The code is NOT easy to learn, takes considerable time and practice to obtain any speed, and differs only from the regular Morse telegraph code by the reason that all space letters are eliminated in the wireless code; the letters and figures contain just dots and dashes, whereas the Morse code in addition to dots and dashes contains space letters. Telegraph operators are divided into just two classes: hams and experts. I can sit by our International News Service direct private wire that is in the office of The Glendale Evening News, and get just about every tenth word, and comes very speedy and mostly in abbreviations, and takes an expert operator to handle that class of work, and while wireless messages are not sent with the speed of this special leased wire, nevertheless it takes considerable practical experience to be able to read them. Question: Is a Grebe wireless telephone receiver considered one of the best?—E. N., Eagle Rock. Answer: This make of instrument is classed very high and is undoubtedly one of the best. Question: Up to this time what is the greatest distance that the voice

FREE AND FORCED OSCILLATIONS. When a pendulum or any kind of a weight is suspended by a cord and struck a blow it will swing back and forth a certain number of times per second, depending upon the length of the cord. The number of swings per second is the rate of vibration and will remain constant as long as the length of the cord is not altered. And this is regardless of the fact that the pendulum may only swing for a fraction of a second before coming to rest. The rate remains the same. The same thing would happen if the weight were drawn to one side and let go to produce the swinging. Perhaps it is clearer in this latter case to see how the pendulum is ALLOWED to oscillate rather than being FORCED to do so. The swings or oscillations are free, since their frequency depends in no way upon the blow or displacement which starts them. An electrical circuit containing capacity and inductance, usually in the form of a condenser and a coil of wire, respectively, may also be allowed to oscillate by charging the condenser and allowing it to discharge. The frequency of the alternating current or oscillations under any circumstances depends only upon the capacity and inductance of the circuit in actual practice. It is entirely independent of the amount of charge in the condenser before discharge. The oscillations are, therefore, free oscillations. If the pendulum were held in the hand and moved back and forth the frequency of the swings would be whatever the frequency of the hand movement is. That is, the pendulum would be forced to swing back and forth with the movement of the hand, regardless of the length of the suspending cord. The oscillations of the pendulum are, of course, FORCED oscillations. In the same manner, if there is an exciting electromotive force in a circuit similar to the one above which forces current of the same frequency as that of the E. M. F., the current is a forced alternating current or forced oscillations. For example, in an electric light circuit the alternating current has the frequency of the exciting E. M. F., regardless of the capacity and inductance of the circuit. These are forced alternations of current. We may have forced oscillations in a radio circuit under some circumstances, particularly when the circuit resistance exceeds a certain value. As a matter of fact, if the true ohmic resistance of a circuit is too high there will be no free oscillations under any circumstances. Any oscillations which do take place must then be forced by an applied E. M. F. sufficient to overcome the resistance. And in this case the frequency of the oscillations is determined by the frequency of the applied E. M. F.

A REFILLABLE "B" BATTERY. Most owners or operators of radio receiving equipment using vacuum tubes use the customary block type dry battery for the plate circuits of their tubes. Most of these block types are sealed in so that if one cell "goes dead" the whole battery is useless. It cannot be readily repaired or refilled. A wireless "B" battery is now on the market, however, which has each cell set in its own little compartment so that it is easily accessible. If one cell is defective or becomes run down it may be lifted out and replaced by a fresh cell. The contacts may also be readily cleaned when necessary. Another advantage is the possibility of varying the voltage in steps of 1 1/2 volts up to the maximum of 22 1/2 volts. This allows the battery to be used with the "soft" detector tubes, which require critical voltage adjustment. The makers claim the battery to be absolutely powerless in operation, due to the special electrolyte and the careful selection of other materials used. The dimensions of the battery are 7 in. x 4 1/2 in. x 2 3/4 in.—no larger than the customary block types.

George Delgado Buys Half Interest In Patrol Picture Filled With Suspense Featured at Glendale Today

George C. Delgado of 706 East Lomita avenue has purchased a half interest in the Glendale Patrol & Fire Dispatch business with Ira J. Herbert and together they will personally attend to the patrolling of the business section of the city auxiliary to the police protection between the hours of darkness and dawn. According to Mr. Delgado, the service is made efficient by the use of time clocks which definitely show just where the patrolmen are at each given hour. A 30-minute round of Broadway, Brand boulevard, Maryland street and Glendale avenue will be made from 10 o'clock until 6 a. m., it is stated. A British company claims that it has developed a process for treating chalk with a carbon bearing substance so that a valuable fuel results. has been heard by wireless telephone?—B. T., Glendale. Answer: Many different claims have been set forth as to distance covered, but 10,000 miles is at this time considered the maximum distance that it is possible for the voice to travel by radio, but what is true today in this regard may be changed by tomorrow, and I think there is little reason to believe but that in a short time the distance that the voice may travel by radio will be practically unlimited. Library Board Plans Interior Improvements

At the meeting of the library board held last night a great deal of the time was taken up by discussing interior improvements, including the installation of a delivery desk in the juvenile room, which was authorized by the board. This will facilitate the attendant in the juvenile department in doing other work besides stamping books, especially in the hours during which the children are in school. The matter of painting the downstairs portion of the library was also discussed and this improvement is already under way.

An important feature of last night's meeting was the discussion of the library outgrowing its present quarters and the problem of handling the big demand which is being made on the establishment. Nothing definite has been decided, but the library board is facing the problem of an increase over the present quarters. Details in connection with the proposed budget for the ensuing year were also given consideration at the meeting, the underlying principle being the upholding of service and purchasing of books. The members of the library board present were O. Spencer, chairman; T. W. Preston, Mrs. C. H. Temple, Mrs. Genevieve Goss and Mrs. Charles A. Barker.

Harrower Employes Visitors at Postoffice

Tomorrow is "ladies' day" at the Glendale postoffice, where Improvement Week is in progress. Leave it to the ladies to learn something about the mail.

This morning the employes of the Harrower Laboratory who, with Dr. Henry R. Harrower in the lead, motored to the office, inspected the various departments while those in charge explained the work.

They were greeted by Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson as the most important customers and each and every one given an opportunity of learning the correct way to address envelopes, packages, etc., not to say that they already didn't know.

After the inspection Pru-Ber-ree punch was served and the postoffice orchestra entertained. Yesterday afternoon the Glendale Merchants' Association members attended.

Thursday the school children will be the special guests, it is announced.

READY TO TALK FINANCES

WASHINGTON, May 2.—British Ambassador Geddes has informed the state department that Great Britain is ready to open negotiations with the United States government to fund the British debt of $5,000,000,000, it was learned officially.

Secretary of State Hughes has communicated this fact to the other members of the American debt funding commission and the commission will re-assemble again in the near future to arrange for opening the financial parity.

FORMAL OPENING OF WHITE INN HELD LAST NIGHT

Number of Glendale People at First Meal Served; Service at Cafeteria Starts

Ye White Inn, 223 South Brand boulevard, last night had its formal opening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas were on hand to meet their many friends and O. B. Tewes of 441 West Windsor Road was kept busy as master of the dining room.

The special table d'hote menu, which had been prepared for the occasion, proved gratifying to a large number of Glendale folk. The dinner was croqueted around a motif of baked chicken set off by new peas in butter and potatoes rissole. This was preceded by a fruit cocktail, puree Mongol and an entree of whitfish a la Mornice and succeeded by Waldorf salad, ice cream and petit fours.

The lobby of the establishment was decorated by a number of bouquets of beautiful flowers sent in honor of the occasion. Among those who expressed their interest in the new hotel by sending flowers were A. G. Davenport and E. R. Beal, Mrs. Margaret Phelan, J. C. Higgins, the Japanese Florist Shop, the Japanese Art & Tea Store, and Kilts & Jackson, Los Angeles. A handsome bunch of sweet peas also stood on the counter from the mother of Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. John Nolan of Oregon.

Music Is Provided

Music during the evening was furnished by Miss Natalie Yeo of 344 El Bonito street at the piano and Mrs. Dorothy Armstrong Welcome with violin.

The attractiveness of the dining room was the source of many compliments. The snow white table cloths contrast well with the cream colored chairs. The woodwork is of the ivory color. The banquet room to the right of the main dining room with the back of each chair wearing a slip-on of colorful cretonne was especially pleasing to the eye. A floor lamp and wicker furniture gave the lobby a most "homey" appearance.

The hotel upstairs was open for inspection also. Those who "toured" it commented upon the taste shown in the selection of its furniture, its extreme neatness and other desirable features.

Express Appreciation

Considering the amount of unavoidable work to be done at almost the last moment, many today are paying tribute to the energy which made possible the opening right on schedule time to the minute.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas and O. B. Tewes all expressed themselves as grateful to those who showed their interest in the establishment last night. They have assured the public that those who patronize either the hotel or the cafeteria will not be disappointed as to either food or service.

Cafeteria service commenced this morning at Ye White Inn and will be resumed daily. Breakfast will be served between the hours of 6 and 10; lunch between 11 and 2; afternoon tea between 2 and 5; and dinner between 5 and 8 o'clock.

George Moyle Tells Of Templar Meeting

Southern California was well represented at the national encampment and convocate of Knights Templar last week in New Orleans, according to George U. Moyle, commander of the local chapter who attended as a delegate in company with Dan Campbell, past commander.

A special train of twelve coaches carried the representatives from the Pacific Southland. The rest of California, including San Francisco and the bay cities, sent its delegates in one Pullman. Golden West Chapter No. 43 of Los Angeles received seventh place in the competitive drill and Los Angeles No. 9 was given fourth place.

After a strenuous campaign against Indianapolis, Seattle was selected for the next convocate in 1923.

While in New Orleans, delegates slept in their Pullmans. They were much impressed with the southern hospitality. They found the weather very pleasant during their sojourn. Reports of floods in Louisiana kept many delegates from the convocate. Otherwise, the recent rampage of "The Father of Waters" did not obstruct the program.

On the return trip an entire day was spent at the Grand Canyon.

Miss Estella Taylor Birthday Party Hostess

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Taylor of 419 West Elk avenue entertained with a May party yesterday, May 1, in celebration of the ninth birthday anniversary of their little daughter, Estella Amalie Taylor. Music, songs and games were enjoyed during the afternoon, at the close of which refreshments of ice cream, cake and cookies were served and favors of May baskets and caps were given the little folks present. Beautiful May baskets of pink and white roses were used in decoration.

The guests included Virginia Hammers and Stanley Hammons of Los Angeles, Edna Paull, Nan Jones, Muriel Curtis, Margaret Glascock, Barbara Stamps, Genevieve Luc, Alice Luc, Dorothy Boyer, Dorothy Cattleman, Virginia Dunklin, Ruby Bertella Henzies, Janet Reese, Harry Jenkins, Melvin Jenkis and Rosanette Brundage.

Engineering and carpentry will be taught the natives of New Guinea soon. The New Guinea Central Labor administration plans to equip the islands with skilled native labor and eventually hopes to train the natives in every trade.

DISPLAY OF WILD MUSIC PUBLISHING COMPANY BEING FORMED HERE

FLOWERS PLAN OF CITY LIBRARY

Exhibit to Be Made on Next Monday at Juvenile Room; Prizes to Be Given

The wild flowers of California are of especial interest with the spring season of the year. With this idea in mind Mrs. J. C. Danford, librarian at the Harvard street public library, is planning to have a wild flower display in the juvenile room of the library next Monday, May 8.

A prize has been offered to the school that brings in the best collection and also another prize to the individual who can name the largest number of the flowers on exhibition. Flowers for the display will be received all day Saturday and Sunday afternoon from 2 o'clock until 5 and also Monday morning. Mrs. Sarah Mullen will have charge of classifying the flowers.

A splendid collection of new books on many varied topics are being prepared for distribution at the library. Among the volumes which have recently been released are the following:

"As California Wild Flowers Grow," by Katherine Chandler. Simple flowers, tubular flowers, fantastic flowers, grouped flowers, flowers that like high altitudes, some specializing flowers, plants with healing qualities, and kindred subjects are explained in this interesting book.

"The Flower Art of Japan," by Mary Averill. The author reviews in this book the salient points of some of the many schools of flower arrangement, which she states have been established in Japan. A splendid book for those who wish to make their floral arrangements a matter of natural, symbolic significance instead of arbitrary personal taste.

"Early Religious Painting," "Japanese Art," by Sadakichi Hartmann. This book deals with such subjects as early religious painting, the feudal period, the Renaissance, the realistic movement, the influence of Japanese art on western civilization, Japanese architecture and sculpture, the ornamental arts, modern Japanese art.

"Artists of the Nineteenth Century and Their Works," by Clara E. Clement and Lawrence Hulton. A handbook containing 2050 biographies.

"Psycho-Analysis and Behavior," by Andre Tridon. The chapters of this book deal with the organism, problems of childhood, progress and regressions, sleep and dreams, problems of sex, the psychoanalytical treatment, the four schools of psycho-analysis.

"Fyodor Dostoyevsky," a study by his daughter, Aimee Dostoyevsky.

Three plays in one volume, by Eugene G. O'Neill. "The Emperor Jones," in eight scenes. A study of the psychology of fear and of race superstition. "Diff'rent," in two acts. "The Straw," in three acts.

"Essays on Modern Dramatists," by William Lyon Phelps.

A set of Elbert Hubbard's books on famous men, great business men, famous women, famous artists, and so forth.

"About Bulgarian People," "Bulgaria" and her people, by Will S. Monroe. This book gives also an account of the Balkan wars, Macedonia and the Macedonian Bulgars.

"A Wonderland of the East," by William Copeman Kitchin, Ph. D. An inspiring description of the mountain and lake region of New England and eastern New York.

"Florida," the Land of Enchantment, by Nevin O. Winter. Includes an account of its romantic history from the days of Ponce de Leon, a survey of its climates, lakes and rivers, description of its scenic wonders and a comprehensive review of Florida today.

Harry Girard Tells of Project Under Way; Day of Jazz Over, He Declares

Another industry is to be established in Glendale, according to an announcement made by Harry Girard that a company is being organized to print and publish a collection of original compositions, written by him at odd times during the past eight years while touring the United States and Canada.

This will be Glendale's first musical engraving establishment. The company will be a close corporation and be devoted entirely to the publication of the Girard manuscripts, numbering over a hundred.

Such songs as "For Thee," "Heart Broken," "Separation," "Song of Life," "O, Rose so Fair," "Prairie Land," "Mother Love," "Never, Never Land," "An Eskimo Wail," "Kuskokwim," "Longing," "Dimples," "Angel Eyes," "The Lament," "Conch Shell," "Shovel On," "Gold Along the Rivers," "Can I Forget?" are a few of the compositions published in the past twenty years by Mr. Girard, besides many more serious works, and sold throughout the world.

Mr. Girard states the time of "jazz" is over, and a marked leaning toward legitimate music is apparent throughout the length and breadth of this country. With this announcement he also states that for nearly ten years he has steadfastly refused all offers for the publication of his works, as he felt that they would receive no recognition during the "jazz" craze.

Continuing, he stated: "I have never played a 'jazz' number in my life, and so-called 'rag' is a musically depraved taste which was never acquired. Both were introduced by unprincipled musical publishers, for one purpose only, 'To get the money.' Who ever plays 'Alexander's Ragtime Band' nowadays?"

"Old and Still in Demand" "On the other hand 'The Rosary' is selling at the rate of 100,000 copies a year and is twenty years old. Tosti's 'Goodbye' is twenty-five years old and sells close to 200,000 yearly. 'Dardanelles' is hopelessly gone at the end of the second year. This is good for reflection and should be source of gratification to all sincere lovers of good music."

In 1900 "The Trend of Time," a lyrical idyl, was written by Mr. Girard and published in New York and today is alive on the counters in the music stores of Europe and America. The first performance of this work was May 6, 1900. It will be presented for the first time in Glendale on Thursday night at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium under the auspices of the Business and Professional Women's Club by the Girard-LaBonte quartet.
